NOTE: This is a grant-funded position and continued employment is contingent upon receipt of grant funds. ***

POSITION SUMMARY: Under general supervision of the Resident Program Coordinator this position serves as a SNRHA staff liaison and provides case management services to assist SNRHA clients in becoming independent of public assistance programs through the Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) program. The duties listed below illustrate the various types of work performed. The omission of specific statements regarding duties does not exclude them from the position if the work is similar, related, or a logical assignment in association with this position.

SUPERVISION EXERCISED: No direct supervision.

ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS/DUTIES: Primary essential job functions are listed in "bold."

- Carry a caseload of FSS program clients according to current NOFA; schedule and conduct regular meetings with program participants; and assist clients in maintaining and managing FSS contract obligations in accordance with HUD regulations and requirements.
- Work with the PCC and with local service providers to ensure program clients are linked to supportive services to achieve self-sufficiency.
- Provide a full range of FSS case management services, on a regular, on-going and satisfactory basis: assess client needs, determine eligibility; and develop an Individual Training and Services Plan that identifies client needs and action steps necessary to meet the client's goals.
- Provide counseling to FSS clients, including referring to community resources, and emphasizes the value of building personal wealth through economic independence, self-sufficiency, and possibly homeownership. Counsel clients on resolving contract compliance issues.
- Monitor the progress of program participants and evaluate the overall success of the program.
- Support the relationship between SNRHA and the constituent population by demonstrating courteous and cooperative behavior when interacting with clients, visitors, and SNRHA staff.
- Ensure escrow funds are accrued accurately and annual reports are sent to each client.
- Engage in outreach and orientation activities which provide FSS program information.
- Analyze and solve problems within realistic time frames.
